04 OVERVIEW

The following wrap-up report documents the Global Record Premiere Event of Pearl Jam's new release Dark Matter in 45 countries and 900 cinemas (328 U.S. theaters & 606 international theaters) on April 16, 3 days before the global release. Abramorama worked in close collaboration with Pearl Jam (our 5th time working with the band), Republic Records and Universal Music Group offices around the world to implement this global event.

Pearl Jam fans were among the very first to hear the band's new record Dark Matter on April 16 in 45 countries and 900 cinemas around the world with "Dark Matter In The Dark." Presented in Atmos where available, fans at the Global Cinema Event (in Atmos Cinemas where available) heard Dark Matter in its entirety twice before it was available anywhere!

First in a dark cinema with just the music playing and then a second time experiencing the record with added light photography visuals by artist Alexandr Gnezdilov on screen during playback. The musical experience was unlike any other record premiere event. The goal was to create fan centric listening events marketed as "Dark Matter In The Dark" in the best cinemas in targeted countries around the world.

This global event was a key marketing tool to excite the existing fan base about the band's new music while also reaching fans outside of Pearl Jam's social sphere. The response and exposure exceeded expectations across the board. Countries included: Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cyprus, Denmark, El Salvador, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Guatemala, Honduras, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Luxembourg, Macedonia, Mexico, Netherlands, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Norway, Panama, Paraguay, Perú, Poland, Portugal, Serbia, Scotland, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, United Kingdom, and Ukraine, in which we set up a fundraising event.

Net Result: Dark Matter out-grossed top Hollywood studio releases, such as Civil War and Ghostbusters, in many cinemas. Pearl Jam's new album sat on top of 5 Billboard Charts, only missing the #1 record due to being released the same day as Taylor Swift's new album. Abramorama delivered a Global Campaign that excited fans, drove sales... and was profitable!

ONE NIGHT ONLY GLOBAL THEATRICAL EXPERIENCE

On Tuesday April 16, tons of movie theaters across the globe will screen Dark Matter for one night and one night only. "To celebrate the release of the new album, Pearl Jam will present an exclusive cinematic engagement, Pearl Jam – Dark Matter – Global Theatrical Experience," the band says.

Rocking the big screen is certainly something Pearl Jam has had great success with in the past. Whether it was via director Danny Clinch's Let's Play Two film, or Cameron Crowe's PJ20 film, the band has released exciting visual presentations of their music numerous times.

The difference here is Dark Matter will be screening at numerous places around the state. When PJ20 was released it was primarily at a theater in Cambridge. This is not the case here. 10 different spots around Massachusetts will carry the one-night special.

Amazing experience! A little bit less than 50 attendees at the Vue Cinema Portsmouth, UK. I invited two of my friends who are not big PJ fans to the screening. They both enjoyed it, as they felt that they got more than they had expected. In fact, one of them was singing along to the lyrics. They liked Scared of Fear, and Something Special. For me the visuals along with the lyrics offered a totally new perspective to the whole album. Now, I can appreciate more/relate to React, Respond and Waiting for Stevie. Off to London tomorrow morning 🥳 Happy DM release day, everybody! 🎉🎊 adimusiclyrics The song that grew on me the most from the new album.

Having the 1 minute opening in the cinema event was insane and touching - you knew something big was about to happen. The beginning with the line "The distance to the end is closer now than it has ever been" with u2 vibes was simply amazing.

i_am_bernice_ We've had an evening of listening to Dark Matter before it's release on Friday. For me a new album is like meeting someone new. Will we be friends or do I think you are full of shit? After three listenings I think Dark Matter and I will get along very well. I'm very much looking forward to hearing some of these songs live. Thank you @pearljam for giving us something special again. We will see you on the road. #pearljam #darkmatter #tour2024
